

You shall walk after the Lord your God and fear him and keep his commandments and obey his voice, and you shall serve him and hold fast to him.
Deuteronomy 13:4

A cartoon illustration depicting a dramatic scene. On the left, a wooden boat is partially visible, with two men inside. One man, wearing a purple turban and a blue robe, is leaning over the side, looking down in shock. The other man, wearing a green robe, is also looking on. In the center, a man with a beard, wearing a pink robe and a pink turban, is falling from the boat into a dark green sea. He has his arms outstretched and a look of surprise or fear on his face. The sea is turbulent, with white foam on the waves. In the background, there are dark, swirling clouds and a purple sky. The overall style is that of a classic animated film.

JONAH, PROPHET TO NINEVEH

God told Jonah to preach to the great city of Nineveh, because their sin was great. Jonah did not want to go to Nineveh, so he boarded a boat to Tarshish. The Lord sent a great storm on the sea. Jonah knew the storm was because of him. The sailors picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the waves stilled, and the wind stopped. The Lord sent a large fish to swallow Jonah. Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights. Then the Lord commanded the fish to spit Jonah on dry land. God said again to Jonah, “Go to the great city of Nineveh and preach the message I tell you.” This time, Jonah obeyed.

Christ Connection: Jonah spent three days in a fish so that the people of Nineveh could hear God's message, turn from sin, and be saved. Jesus was in the tomb for three days so that we could hear and trust the gospel, turn from sin, and be saved.

The Gospel Project At Home

A square QR code with a black and white pixelated pattern. In the center of the QR code is a white circular logo containing a black cross with rounded ends, resembling a stylized 'G' or a religious symbol. The QR code is set against a dark background with rounded corners.